Introduction

Hello! My name is Christian. Photoshop is a very complex program that has many ways of using it. In this course you're going to learn the basics to create amazing website designs. Please note that we won't be covering everything in Photoshop, like photo retouching or removing red eyes from photos.

Let's get started!